Can I only apply for recognition of my degree at the Studienkolleg Konstanz once I have already submitted my application to Reutlingen University?

No, we strongly recommend that you apply for recognition of your degree at the Studienkolleg Konstanz as soon as possible, as the processing time is 4-6 weeks.

How long does the selection interview take and what does it involve?

The selection interview consists of a structured interview of approx. 20 to 30 minutes, which is conducted in English; among other things, the aptitude and motivation of the applicant for the degree programme are tested.

Can a failed selection interview be repeated?

No, unfortunately this is not possible for the year in question. However, it is up to you as to whether you apply again in the following year.

How is the selection interview conducted with applicants who are abroad?

As a rule, the selection interview takes place online via a predefined link (MS Teams or Zoom).

Can the application documents be sent via e-mail?

*No, please use the online application tool to upload all your documents:
(<https://hisinone.reutlingen-university.de/qisserver/pages/cs/sys/portal/hisinoneStartPage.faces?chco=y>)*

Can I postpone an enrolment offer until the following year?

No, an enrolment offer is only valid for the semester for which you have applied.

Can I apply if my completed undergraduate degree is in business studies/ administration?

Yes. Generally our MBA is focused on non-business graduates but in the past we found that business graduates can also benefit from the programme as well, especially graduates from abroad who want to deepen their understanding of the international business world.

If an application is rejected by the programme once, can I reapply for the next intake?

Yes, reapplication is possible. However, please ensure that you have significantly improved in terms of meeting the requirements for the programme.

Does Reutlingen University support foreign applicants in applying for a visa?

No, visa regulations are independent of German universities. The German embassies in the respective countries are responsible in this case.
